ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

Part I - Eligibility for Detention

Upon the ✓ Motion of the Government attorney pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1), or ☐ Motion of the Government or Court's own motion pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(2), the Court held a detention hearing and found that detention is warranted. This order sets forth the Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law, as required by 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i), in addition to any other findings made at the hearing.

Part II - Findings of Fact and Law as to Presumptions under § 3142(e)

☐ A. Rebuttable Presumption Arises Under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(2) (previous violator): There is a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of any other person and the community because the following conditions have been met:
$\square$ (1) the defendant is charged with one of the following crimes described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1):
☐ (a) a crime of violence, a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1591, or an offense listed in 18 U.S.C.
§ 2332b(g)(5)(B) for which a maximum term of imprisonment of 10 years or more is prescribed; or $\square$ (b) an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death; or
(c) an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of 10 years or more is prescribed in the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. §§ 801-904), the Controlled Substances Import and Export Act (21 U.S.C. §§ 951-971), or Chapter 705 of Title 46, U.S.C. (46 U.S.C. §§ 70501-70508); or $\Box$ (d) any felony if such person has been convicted of two or more offenses described in subparagraphs
(a) through (c) of this paragraph, or two or more State or local offenses that would have been offenses described in subparagraphs (a) through (c) of this paragraph if a circumstance giving rise to Federal jurisdiction had existed, or a combination of such offenses; or
$\Box$ (e) any felony that is not otherwise a crime of violence but involves:
(i) a minor victim; (ii) the possession of a firearm or destructive device (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 921); (iii) any other dangerous weapon; or (iv) a failure to register under 18 U.S.C. § 2250; and
☐ (2) the defendant has previously been convicted of a Federal offense that is described in 18 U.S.C.
§ 3142(f)(1), or of a State or local offense that would have been such an offense if a circumstance giving rise to Federal jurisdiction had existed; and $\square$ (3) the offense described in paragraph (2) above for which the defendant has been convicted was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a Federal, State, or local offense; and ☐ (4) a period of not more than five years has elapsed since the date of conviction, or the release of the defendant from imprisonment, for the offense described in paragraph (2) above, whichever is later.

■ Rebuttable Presumption Arises Under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(3) (narcotics, firearm, other offenses): There is a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community because there is probable cause to believe that the defendant committed one or more of the following offenses:
(1) an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of 10 years or more is prescribed in the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. §§ 801-904), the Controlled Substances Import and Export Act (21 U.S.C. §§ 051-071), on Chapter 705 of Title 46, U.S.C. (46 U.S.C. §§ 70501, 70508).
U.S.C. §§ 951-971), or Chapter 705 of Title 46, U.S.C. (46 U.S.C. §§ 70501-70508);
(2) an offense under 18 U.S.C. §§ 924(c), 956(a), or 2332b;
☐ (3) an offense listed in 18 U.S.C. § 2332b(g)(5)(B) for which a maximum term of imprisonment of 10 years or more is prescribed;
☐ (4) an offense under Chapter 77 of Title 18, U.S.C. (18 U.S.C. §§ 1581-1597) for which a maximum term of imprisonment of 20 years or more is prescribed; or
(5) an offense involving a minor victim under 18 U.S.C. §§ 1201, 1591, 2241, 2242, 2244(a)(1), 2245, 2251, 2251A, 2252(a)(1), 2252(a)(2), 2252(a)(3), 2252A(a)(1), 2252A(a)(2), 2252A(a)(3), 2252A(a)(4), 2260, 2421, 2422, 2423, or 2425.
2200, 2421, 2422, 2423, 01 2423.
☑ C. Conclusions Regarding Applicability of Any Presumption Established Above
☐ The defendant has not introduced sufficient evidence to rebut the presumption above.
OR
▼ The defendant has presented evidence sufficient to rebut the presumption, but after considering the presumption and the other factors discussed below, detention is warranted.
Part III - Analysis and Statement of the Reasons for Detention
After considering the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) and the information presented at the detention hearing, the Court concludes that the defendant must be detained pending trial because the Government has proven:
newing, and countries that the determine much of determine persons and continue the property.

AO 4/2 (Rev. 09/16) Order of Detention Pending 1rial
☑ Significant family or other ties outside the United States
✓ Lack of legal status in the United States
☑ Subject to removal or deportation after serving any period of incarceration
☐ Prior failure to appear in court as ordered
Prior attempt(s) to evade law enforcement
☐ Use of alias(es) or false documents

OTHER REASONS OR FURTHER EXPLANATION:

☐ Background information unknown or unverified

☐ Prior violations of probation, parole, or supervised release

The grand jury has found probable cause to believe that Defendant committed drug offenses, which carry a mandatory minimum sentence of ten years. Moreover, if Defendant were convicted, these offenses require presumptive deportation for an individual who is illegally present in the United States and the inability to seek legal status in the United States in the future. The potential of a significant mandatory minimum sentence and the immigration consequences stemming from this charge if convicted, provide a substantial incentive to fail to appear for future court proceedings.

The history and characteristics of the Defendant also weigh in favor of detention. Defendant is a foreign citizen with substantial foreign ties, in that he is a citizen of and was born in Mexico and resided in Mexico until adulthood. Defendant's parents and ten siblings all reside in Mexico, with whom he has regular contact. Defendant indicates he has been in the United States for approximately 10 years, but he has been in this District for only five years. While his wife and children, and former girlfriend and children reside in the District, they do not have extended family in the District, they do not own property in the District, and Defendant has no verifiable employment history in the District. Moreover, Defendant does not have legal authority to work in the United States. Defense counsel suggested Defendant sign a signature bond. However, the Court finds this to be an insufficient measure to assure Defendant's future appearance. If Defendant were to flee, there is no mechanism to enforce an unsecured bond. Defendant has no ability to post property and has not identified a United States citizen to sign a bond.

While Defendant has limited criminal history, it concerns the Court that Defendant has been deported three times, twice from the US and once from Canada. Multiple deportations and the corresponding subsequent returns to the United States gives the Court concern about Defendant's willingness to comply with court orders.

At the Defendant's suggestion, the Court also considered GPS monitoring. However, such a condition is insufficient to assure the Defendant's presence in Court, as a Defendant intending to flee the jurisdiction could remove the GPS device. The Court finds that GPS monitoring is more successful in protecting the public, a concern not present here.

The Court finds that the United States has established by a preponderance of the evidence that Defendant poses a risk of non-appearance and there are no combination of conditions that would reasonably assure his appearance at future court proceedings.

Part IV - Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the Attorney General or to the Attorney General's designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
